

My Donation in Support of StorySave

We are consistently seeking funding in order to record the voices of elders from the Canadian storytelling community and make them available to listeners world-wide as part of a living legacy through this web site and through the production of CDs.

Please help us with your support. We count on your donations to aid us in finding these voices and keeping them vibrant and heard. The Elizabeth Annie Cogswell Frost Memorial StorySave Fund has been established by M. Jennie Frost in memory of her mother. Donations can be made to this endowment fund or directly to StorySave for our ongoing projects.
